INTERVIEW WITH REV. JAMES LOGSDON (TCM USA)

1.) What are your views on whole situation around Craig Cobb's efforts in North Dakota to create some sort of a white enclave? In the beginning it seemed he was doing it right and gained a lot of media attention, in a good way, but lately it seems everything went down to drain. Do you think he played it the wrong way?

Absolutely. Bro Cobb got frustrated. I have known Craig for about a decade and he doesn't have much patience.

After a year of silently trying to get people involved he went with those he knew would get involved. The NSM and others who are simple media whores. Those that perpetuate negative imagery and messages simply for shock value. What brother Craig was originally trying to accomplish is right along the path i believe we must start going. That is the path of creating our own racial societies. Detach ourselves from the multiracial cesspool. But the last thing we should ever do is draw attention to ourselves. Especially while we are so out manned and outgunned. We have comrades who have successfully started such endeavors but remain silent about them as ZOG will destroy it as Brother Cobb's situation has proven. We need to go the route of the Amish or Mennonite, to look out for our own, because it, in the chaos that will ensue from a racial war, our great creed could get swept away in the fray if we do not. Of course I don't expect any of us to stop using electronics or drive horse drawn buggies like the Amish, lol. But be prepared and trained if we have to.

2.) A lot of people out there claim they embraced Creativity doctrine, and represent themselves as Creators, but when it comes to activism, proselytizing and propagandizing as Klassen would say, they are simply failing. It looks like they would rather debate about which creed or commandment is more important than actually recruit some new white person. What do think of such people, are they Creators at all, because according to me, they don't behave as Creators, Creator is a doer, not an observer.

Are we simply believers or promoters? Well, if anyone truly believes in our creed they must know that our #1 goal is to straighten out the white mans thinking. Unlike any other religion, we do not have anything to prove to a deity. We do not have to "earn" anyone's approval to gain access to an afterlife. We do not have to live by a set of morals or rules implied by said supposed deity. Instead we live by our moral code of racial loyalty as set down by the eternal laws of nature, the highest law of reality. If someone says that they believe but do not profess and fail to act then they do not believe and are just as bad as the common sheep who sticks his/or her head in the sand. Perhaps worse because at least the sheep can claim ignorance. Many grasp onto our beliefs like any other because they need meaning, meaning without having to earn it. This is common in all faiths. We see and hear creators who claim this, do that, all contradictory to our faith, however how many Christians follow the 10 commandments? Their own clergy are in many cases the most degenerate. So we are winning that battle for now, in comparison, however it is always important to point out those that do not obey our principles and shun them if they refuse to fall in line with the true nature of our cause. To straighten out the white man's thinking!

3.) What is our biggest obstacle in spreading of our creed, of seeing the growth of Creativity once again?

Well, in my years of learning from my own faults and observing the faults of other i came to one conclusion. Our church was formed into a political style organization. Not on purpose but simply by the principles of control. This is a religious movement, NOT a political one and cannot be spread as such. We must realize, every last one of us that creativity is what YOU make it. One of our biggest obstacles is for our adherents to stop relying on others to do what they should be doing naturally and that is to SPREAD OUR RELIGION! I saw how the church collapsed from PME Hale's incarceration, because most were so reliant on him to do everything. Instead of doing their duty as creators. Arguing over who was the leader, while the one guy who didn't want to be a leader was forced to make all the decisions! LOL! It is simple and that is exactly my message, KEEP IT SIMPLE! Do not concern yourself with issues that do not effect you and stay focused on spreading the word. Do not get over involved and always remember to keep your own life as to avoid burn out. Never over think things and keep your priorities focused on a goal. For instance, map out areas you plan on hitting, keep a log on what areas you have hit with propaganda, what works in an area and what don't (not all messages work with different types of people, blue collar, white collar, etc.) keep your propaganda localized and stick to issues that effect people on a personal level. Let's face it nowadays our people don't care unless it effects them personally. To wrap up, keep it simple, local, quite if you can. The less our enemies know the better we are because lets face it they are far more prepared and ready then we are. If one fights a war before he has an army that is not a war that is a waste. Frankly, if we have a couple dozen to a couple hundred doing something little every day, it adds up and it grows.

4.) A lot of people in USA are flirting with PLE idea, of moving to white areas with low percentage of non-whites, to raise their families in healthier environment. What is the future of those projects, and what are the consequences? Are we leaving large portion of country to the muds that way?

Well many of our major cities in the US are far from gone. I moved from Zion to Bloomington a few years ago, as many of you might remember. When i lived up there myself, my wife and 4 kids were the only whites in a ten block radius. I fought daily with the blacks and suffered stab wounds and having my wife's cars riddled with bullets. If it was just me who cares lets have it out, but i have children to think of and for their future i had to leave. Now, I did not move to some white homeland, but one that was quite better. For my international brothers who are unaware of American niggers, let me explain. These are a completely different breed of blacks then your typical African black. Not only do they have different physical characteristics as they were bred during slavery this way. Slave owners in most cases would only breed the biggest and strongest of their slaves, while castrating the frail undesirable. Like in modern cattle farming. A blunt truthful fact that gets over looked. That is why if you look at black American athletes they are much bigger and stronger than your typical African. There was a US basketball coach by the name of Jimmy the Greek, in the 70's he was asked why blacks were becoming so dominate in the sport of basketball? He responded by saying that is how they were bred. Of course he wasn't heard from in the sports world again. But truth as truth. You have that with the fact that ever since the "civil rights" movement they were given the rights to say and do whatever they want to whites, with very little consequences. So its like shooting an ape up with steroids and telling him its ok to go bananas! That is why our cities have been over run and we have no one else to blame but ourselves. In cases to where they move in, instead of the community standing together and defying it, they embrace the “diversity” until one turns to ten and ten turns to one hundred and the crime skyrockets, then white start fleeing. It is not the case of simple abandonment it is more a case of lack of racial loyalty amongst those of our own kind. In the case of PLE’s it is fine and a safe, smart route to go. However many that do simply ignore the plight of those still standing and fighting. they feel safe in their community not believing the war will come to their doorstep. Comfort and safety will lead to naivety and ignorance if we do not retain the truth that we are at war.

5.) Can you tell us some current up to date information about rev. Hale’s case? Are his mailing privileges restored again?

His privileges are back on and i encourage everyone to write him as he doesn’t hear from many people and feels he is being forgotten. Not much new to tell said the light in the end of the tunnel is getting smaller and smaller. We have to start realizing we’ll not get him back for many, many years. However, that does not mean we abandon him in anyway. On the contrary he needs us more now than ever.

6.) What is your stance on the importance of public meetings and street demos, especially considering we’ve witnessed some groups doing it the wrong way and gaining negative publicity because of their actions?

I support any action that spreads our creed. However, we cannot gain any positive influence by using Jewish controlled media. It is hypocritical of us to complain endlessly and post constant proof of the anti-white conspiracy amongst the media and government and expect them to work in our favor in anyway. they will twist it, corrupt it and sabotage our progress. Instead utilize other means like street demos without advertising them and any and all means to reach our people. But remember when you deal with people in the masses you deal with idiots. the masses are too easily influenced by our racial enemies. keep it small and if needed be masters of disinformation as plans do not get leaked. The negative imagery that comes with well-publicized rallies and events does not serve our purpose to educate. As i just said our people in mass form are uneducable. Instead reach people in smaller numbers, one on one if possible. Then when WE have the masses we can do bigger more organized events. Until then stop fighting THEIR fight, with THEIR tactics, on THEIR terms.

7.) I’ve listened to some of your radio interviews and read some articles, in many of them you mentioned the term COINTELPRO when describing current and past situations in a pro-white movement. Could you elaborate that please?

One can simply do an internet search on the term to learn the proof, but the basic facts are this: In the late 40's early 50's when there was still a resemblance of anti-communist sentiment in America our law enforcement developed a plan to break apart what they felt were "insurgency" groups. That originally being the communist party, connected to the Black panthers, etc. They sent in government agents to join these people and rise in their ranks. To do whatever necessary to break apart these groups from the inside to splinter them and divide them. It worked so well in the case of the leftists that when the sentiment changed with American political realms the same government agencies to fall in line with the political motives of our new regime, switched things around. They initiated the same tactics on the KKK. At first they sent in 3 key agents. They gave these men a license to kill in the name of the Klan, in order to rise quickly amongst their ranks. After a while they become prominent leaders in the original unified KKK. And in cointelpro fashion as it was intended they developed internal strife amongst leadership, fabricating controversy and lies. The 3 men agents in the midst of this chaos broke away and created their own KKK group, all the while stealing members from the original Klan, claiming they were the better Klan. After successful causing a major split and division these three agents created their own internal drama and broke away from each other. All 3 building their own Klan group. this created a domino effect. 60 years later there are hundreds of Klan groups and unification is impossible. Especially when these tactics still exist within our cause. In the late 70's ironically enough a leftist group broke into a government facility in Pennsylvania uncovering the documents of this government tactic. When confronted the government denied such program still exists but the tactics are oh too common and apparent. We creators see it daily from a splinter now referred to as the Creativity Alliance. This is not their first name however, it is their 4th attempt. Their first was the White Crusaders of the Rahowa. Each attempt had the same person either at the head or in the background and that is a man by the name of Calien Cambuel. This started right after PME Hale's arrest at our most vulnerable in our weakened state. By a man with no credentials or past real involvement who proclaimed himself to be leader and created his own group. I could cite, quote, copy and paste proof after proof of the same style tactics he has done. Not as extreme as the above original cointelpro agents but in this modern age of tech savvy pseudo activists he fits the bill in my book. If it walks like a duck, if it talks like a duck and acts like a duck, usually it's a duck!

8.) Back in 2008, when Barrack Obama was elected as first black (better to say mullato) president of United States, many in WN circles were saying it's actually a good thing that will awake a lot of whites about what's going on. Five years have passed since then and it seems their assumptions were wrong?

At first even I fell into that, thinking maybe this will awaken whites. It has however the ends don't justify the means. It has destroyed what little was left of America. Everything that is there now is nothing more than a shadow, a facade of freedom and justice. Those that continue thinking it was a good thing are those unaware of what is coming. No sane man wants a war but is willing to fight it if need be. Us that have children feel the fear of what will come. He has already tried to abolish our two term limit on a president 3 times just barely getting denied. He will get it and try to proclaim himself president for life. This will lead America into another civil war then will cover the globe. Get prepared my comrades because it is coming.

9.) Last few years there are some secessionist intentions by certain groups, of mostly white people that advocate secession of certain federal states from the US. Can you give us a bit of a more insight into the whole thing, especially to us Europeans not familiar with it?

Ok first the United States was just that, independent states, or countries completely united as one with their own independent governments. As originally intended by our constitution. However, what initiated our civil war was the "federal" representation forcing laws onto states they didn't agree with. The biggest lie spread here and abroad on American history is our civil war was fought over slavery alone. That is far from the truth. There were many issues pertaining to state law our federal government was trying to abolish. The highest number of slave owners in America was 5% at its height in 1860. The largest slave owner was the Rothschild family. Those who claim creativity should know that name from the NER. Right along with the lies spread about Abraham Lincoln, in which he was a nigger activist. A complete lie. His plan for freeing the slaves was to recolonize them to Africa. Countries like Algeria were originally founded by the US as decolonization camps. Hence why he was assassinated. I could go into much more detail but best way to describe it for Europeans is this. As the strength of the EU grows YOU Europeans will become more of a federalized entity and eventually experience the same thing when those countries a part of the EU reject EU mandated standards. When they try to force their rules and regulations on said country and hence in order to reject their mandate you will have to secede from the EU. Hence many states are threatening to secede from the US and become their own country. Sadly most cannot do this. For protection value and mostly financial reasons, because they rely so heavy on federal funding. I my state Illinois, our state is the most corrupt, from George Ryan (many older creators will remember as he took our charity status away) to the black messiah himself Obama, then Blagojevich, etc... Our last 4 governors are doing prison time for corruption! However, it is not the whole state. We suffer from one major tumor and that is Chicago or &*% as we have named it. the murder capital of the states and the highest black population of any major US city. It financially weighs down on the rest of the state. A personal acquaintance of yours truly ran for governor of this state and won 100 of 102 counties in the state, yet sadly lost the election because he lost Chicago. Its corruption is what stops us from seceding. Only a few states could legitimately secede. Texas is the primary candidate. Being born in Texas I remember it being a completely different culture and society from the rest of the US. It has the geographical size of a quarter of Europe with much resources and financial capabilities. It has more refineries than half the globe and honestly has the means and capabilities to sustain itself as a nation. You have Alaska that has more oil than Russia and the whole middle east combined. Which confuses most Americans on why we are is such dependent on foreign oil. However they have a very small population compared to its size (over half the size of all of Europe). Because of it remoteness, so don't think for a minute our government, Russia or china would not just simply go in and take it if they seceded. Not to mention our US federal government has already sold mineral rights of our national parks (half of Alaska) without their approval to china! So the idea of secession is a remote one at best. An idea not very thought out by those amongst our kin.

IMPERIUM

10.) Do you think that direct approach, "one on one" type of activism, direct talk with prospective people, has been grossly neglected by us all?

One as said above i highly support and the only true means of educating. In this age of distrust and paranoia it is hard to reach people. You will never truly reach people in "mob" form, in the masses. We need to gain peoples trusts, to show them a better way. That can only be achieved through personal interactions. However, not waste too much time on any individual as we have many to get to. You can lead a horse to water but you can't make it drink.

11.) Some of the pro-white politicians and activists favorize so called soft approach, they try to appease the public and the media into liking them through not using racial terms, trying to be politically correct, but they still get called "nazi", racist, fascist, and still end up attacked by the media. Is it just the waste of time?

Complete waste. we talk about how corrupt our political situations are but yet we expect a lone should to rise above? That is like taking a good apple and throwing it into a barrel of rotten apples, what will happen is inevitable. All power corrupts, especially to those that seek it. We will see leaders slowly emerge and stop caring. A prime example right now is the communist Putin which has almost more popularity amongst Americans then Obama. Men will always follow a leader who is brave and unwavering. They will follow actions not sentiments; they will follow loyalty not conformity. A leader will emerge but will he be corrupted, we will see.

12.) Now, a question from the showbiz, haha. We all know of BFG, one of the most known and famous pro-white metal bands out there. This year they went on a tour through Japan, doing few concerts, or was it just one, can't remember now. They were welcomed by some Japanese patriotic skinhead organization. Now, I know we are not here to talk about music, bands or skinheads, but I just wanted to hear your opinion on the whole deal, how do you, as a racial loyalist view their singing and associating with Asian crowd?

IMPERIUM

I come from a bias approach as i know many within the American WP music scene and have respect for very few, especially BFG. They still associate with someone who is a proven federal informant simply for money. Half these supposed “pro white” bands are posers. they become white power musicians mainly cause their music sucks, they put a racist spin on it, get people to buy CD’s then think they are rock stars! I have met many of bands in this movement who would do a show in Israel if they were paid enough!!! It’s a sad joke. It’s better to support those bands whose members were involved racialists before becoming “rock stars.” That way you know there intentions are true. Bands like Invictus come to mind. He He!

13.) And, for the last question, do you consider some white people are not worth saving? I refer mostly to white liberals with overall white guilt manifestations. Is there any point in wasting time on such people when we know they have been brain polluted so hard it's irrational to expect they could come to their senses?

Well, imagine we did not need numbers and that if we rejected these people they wouldn’t fight right along the side of our racial enemies against us. If that was the case these people are traitors by definition correct? In the days of our distant ancestors these people would be castrated and enslaved. We simply keep them at arm’s reach, realize their treachery but don’t lash out at them. Simply focus on our goals. If one day we win and have the power well.....

STRAIGHT EDGE

IMPERIUM

Often it is possible to hear the opinion that living life sober and free of drugs is meaningless. So, the meaning of life is a cigarette, a bottle of vodka or a drug? We do not have any statistics, but most young people, unfortunately, see the whole point of life this way – over the week they are studying and working, but still awaiting the "cult" of Saturday to drink or get high.

Many people think that as long as something does not control your life, everything is in order. It's just that there is a serious problem. There are too many people that 'just drink as a consumers' or drug addicts who "just like to smoke pot every now and then". Those are just pathetic excuses, to avoid answering the real problems of life.

Addiction to any drugs, alcohol and even tobacco can actually be damaging in many ways. People that are into Straight Edge are very aware of that and they want nothing to have control over their lives. Straight Edge is dropping the mask and promotes the overall pride of who you are. So not only we do not smoke, do not drink and use drugs, but we are also proud of it. Do not hide your head in the sand! Let's admit – today it's not fashionable to be sober and clean. Young people often 'need' to drink, or 'need' to smoke marijuana. In reality they don't, but it's a way through which they want to be cool in front of their friends. With Straight Edge you must be proud of yourself, unless you are too weak to throw off the mask and continue doing those things just so you can more easily be accepted among your so called friends.

Straight Edge originally wasn't anything political, but during the years, many people on the pro-white scene adopted Straight Edge as their way of life. There are also many pro-white hardcore music bands that promote Straight Edge way of life. You can often hear that Straight Edge in pro-white circles is also called Hate Edge or Terror Edge, which is just some kind of idea of extreme name for Straight Edge... although there is one additional difference. Specifically, a lot of those people are into martial arts and there are various competitions, they even established a brand in Russia under the name WHITE REX, which produces clothes for martial art sports, but only for white people.

IMPERIUM

Now, the connection with Salubrious Living. Realistically speaking, Straight Edge is Salubrious Living. I see no essential difference, because Salubrious Living is basically promoting a healthy lifestyle and rational thinking, struggling the problems with healthy spirit and sober, and not running away from problems and searching for "consolation" in alcohol or drugs.

Let's be honest and admit that the huge number of young people subject to it. At first it is promoted as something "cool". Eventually it becomes a problem and those same children become more a burden of society and it is not fun. Not all end up that way, but a lot of them tend to.

So, those two terms are closely related, that is virtually the same thing just with different names. If we remember Hitler lived similar way of life and he promoted it and gradually introduced into the society, primarily through greater activity level of young people in schools (greater number of hours of physical education and sports).

Straight Edge is one of the important things to promote force and greatness of the white race. Why? Because this way you show people an example of reasonable thinking and a healthy attitude toward life, toward your race. If we fight for our preservation, then preserving our health and spirit, and its strengthening, is precondition for everything else. I think that this is the right way because if you're healthy and sober you can achieve absolutely everything.

So why bother to be sick if you can be healthy, have a strong character, determination and willingness to promote a healthy lifestyle and racial awareness, and in such a way to show that we really are perfect examples of our race, that we are Nature's Finest, as Klassen said.

Ideal white person is physically healthy, mentally clear, and courageous individual (same goes for women, of course), and in order to be that way a requirement is to have a healthy attitude towards yourself and to take care of yourself in a healthy way.

Salubrious Living and Straight Edge are closely related, the only difference is

IMPERIUM

Straight Edge basically has no connection with racial attitudes, while Salubrious Living on the other hand strongly focuses on racial issues.

In short, I would describe as Salubrious Living as a Straight Edge with clear racial attitudes, and I think that for white people is not just desirable, but necessary to head in that direction, so that they can have enough power and strength to fight their enemy, and to be an example to other whites. Once, years ago, when I spoke about this issue to one of my acquaintances, I explained it like this: Health is life, everything else is just petty things! The essence of it is that healthy you can achieve anything, sick you can do nothing.

Are we followers or promoters

I have ran into many people that claim to follow the faith of creativity and spend more time judging others for not following creativity the way they do. This deeply upsets me and makes me bang my head against the wall frustrated on the ignorant arrogance of some. If you are a true follower of our creed you will know our main goal is to promote our faith. Who is and who isn't a "better" follower is irrelevant to the greater cause. If you have a small group of creators that sit around and say "we are the true followers Klassens teachings" all the while do not convert, awaken or educate anyone for years, this does not make them a creator, this makes them a condescending douche! Many of us know people and groups like this.

I have been real close this year, closer than any other, to just giving up on creativity. The constant back biting, internal bickering, ZOG intimidation and lack of support from our adherents has drove me to a life of depression, alcoholism and bitterness. When i evaluate why i came to this and look for a way to dig myself out of this rut and hole i have found myself in, i must look at why. I will not blame others because i allowed their actions to influence me and drag me into this pit of destructiveness. The same pit i tried dragging others out of in the past, i found myself in. Without the support of others or the ability to take some real personal time to myself like i tried in the past. It's kind of hard to focus on yourself when people call everyday with their problems. I do not have it in me to abandon any of my brothers in their time of need. Many have said my heart is my biggest problem. Anyway, I had to find a way out of it myself. I did and that is through the teachings of creativity. I have to learn to throw off the negativity that surrounds us and realign our course. I will quit drinking and smoking and start focusing on the promotion of our creed. I want to move to a more salubrious diet but one thing at a time. After this, my personal evaluation and outcome i have also come to the big realization of what i started this article out as.

One cannot simply be a follower of creativity. If you follow our teachings but yet do not promote it, then that is as if you are condemning those you come into contact with to a life of ignorance. A creator must learn to care about his fellow white man and educate those he can when he can. Instead of simply looking down at him for not believing what we do. That's is the actions of a Christian and not a Creator. We are essentially missionaries for life.

When the Jews spread Christianity through the Roman Empire they did so because they had thousands willing to die for theirs. Because they had 100,000 who followed Judaism ruthlessly. They didn't just except Judaism and then say "oh that's good enough" or "well i am a true follower of Judaism". No! Nor does any adherent or convert of any religion just stop with themselves. Nor should we. Nor can we! It is our holy duty to stop at nothing to educate our people. If you have hit everyone in your circle, then expand your circle. become socialites, learn to become promoters of our creed. Essentially become missionaries of our faith. For the truth. Disregard the nonsense that may have dragged you down, like it did myself and others. Discover we are bigger, far bigger then ourselves and you will see our bright future. Let TCM be the promoters of our creed and then in a hundred years, no one will debate nor care who was the better creator, or even know. Or will it even matter as long as we do our job of awakening our kin. RAHOWA!

KLASSEN'S TEACHINGS: THE NAIVE AMERICAN GOY

Historically, the Jews most servile tool in slavishly doing their dirty work

The last meaningful war the United States fought on behalf of the best interests of the White Race undoubtedly was the War with Mexico in 1846-48. The White Race can be forever grateful to our then illustrious President, namely James K. Polk, whose foresight, determination and loyalty to the White Man's cause increased our territory by more than half, and in carrying out our Manifest Destiny, extended the White Man's territory from the shores of the Atlantic to those of the Pacific.

We can categorically state that every major war the United States has fought since that time, beginning with the disastrous Civil War (or sometimes called the War between the States) has been geared to the destruction and to the detriment of the White Race, to the ruination of the national interest of the United States as such, and above all, to the major benefit in expanding the stranglehold of Jewish power in the United States, as well as on a worldwide basis. The Jews have skillfully manipulated the White Man's brain and actions, exploited the tremendous productivity and ingenuity of the servile White Race in order to further the sinister goals of the Jewish Conspiracy and at the same time to decimate, undermine and destroy the White Race Itself.

Fantastic? It may seem so, but the reality of history speaks for itself. Let us review the history of the United States for the last 130 years, case by case, starting with the disastrous so-called Civil War.

IMPERIUM

Case No. One: American Civil War. The much ballyhooed Civil War was not about slavery. In every idiotic war the Jews have euchred us into, they have fervently and blatantly proclaimed some phony moral issue as to why the White Man should plunge in and kill each other wholesale, and the Civil War was a typical example. This brutal war was meticulously planned years in advance by the Rothschilds and the Jewish money clique. The propaganda technique was then skillfully applied to both the North and the South, neither of which previously gave a tinker's damn about the stinking niggers until they were plied with a massive dose of inflammatory propaganda.

The real issues were these:

(a) The Jewish money power in New York and Philadelphia was determined to break the rising political and financial power of the Southern plantation owners. We must remember that before 1861 Mississippi was the most prosperous state in the Union and Natchez was home to more millionaires than any other city in the United States. By the time the massive killing of White Men by other White Men ended in 1865, Mississippi, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and other Southern states lay in ruins, much as did Dresden, Hamburg and the rest of Germany after W.W. II, and as does Baghdad today.

(b) A second benefit the Jews derived from this insane and cruel war was the destruction of the flower of White manhood in the North and especially in the South, thereby promoting the Jews' eternal goal – that of drastically pulling down the quality of the White gene pool.

The casualty figures are staggering for this young nation with a limited population. The total Union casualties were 359,528 of which number 110,070 were killed in battle or died of wounds, 224,586 died of disease, and 24,872 of other causes. This does not include the hundreds of thousands that were maimed and crippled for the rest of their life.

The Confederate Army, which was only about one-third the size of the Union forces, suffered much heavier casualties percentage wise. Small towns found their young male population virtually wiped out. For example, the 14th Tennessee Battalion marched out of Clarksville with 960 soldiers in 1861. By the beginning of the Battle of Gettysburg in 1863, 360 were left. By sunset, only 60 stood. By battle's end, there were only three survivors.

Although there are no complete records available of the Confederate casualties, the numbers were brutal and massive, inflicting a devastating blow to the White gene pool, from which the South has never recovered.

(c) It firmly re-established Jewish money power, centralized on the Eastern seaboard, and now extending unchallenged over all of the United States.

We must remember that the Jews were able to establish all these gains by brute force only because of the killing, bleeding and dying of the befuddled and misguided White soldiers in the field of battle.

Case No. Two: World War I. This was the first and greatest worldwide conflagration up to that time, in which all the major White nations of the world participated in killing, wholesale slaughter and mass devastation of their own kind of people. Now, some seventy or eighty years later, no scholarly historian has yet come forth and stated one single solitary reason that makes any sense as to why the White nations plunged into such an inane and self-destructive pursuit.

At the turn of the century, it was Germany, located in the heart of Europe and thirty years earlier united under Bismark, that was the up and coming White nation. It was the natural and most progressive leading nation in Europe. For this reason, it was deemed as a threat to Jewish power, and the Kehilla decided it had to be destroyed, the same as they had decided the South had to be devastated some fifty years earlier. Again, it was the American doughboys and American productivity that was thrown in the balance and turned the tide in the favor of Jewish money power. Despite the fact that more than 30% of the American population itself at that time was of German ancestry, America went to war and helped to smash Germany. It was not an 'Allied' victory, nor a White victory, but purely a Jewish victory. Most of the European nations lay prostrate, their economies ruined, disease and famine stalking the land, and Jewish Communism taking over the largest country in the world.

In this case, we must again remember, it was the idiotic naivete of the American goy that turned the tide in favor of the Jews.

Case No. Three: World War II. Despite the Jewish devastation and bankruptcy of Germany, these energetic and resourceful people pulled themselves together and a great leader emerged. Despite runaway inflation, despite tyrannical and impossible "reparations" and war debts imposed by the victors (Jews), the German people survived their catastrophic defeat and by the 1930's, under the leadership of that great genius Adolf Hitler, emerged as the most prosperous and powerful nation in the world. Despite the spreading cancer of communism in other nations, despite worldwide depression (we must remember that even the United States at this time was wallowing in its worst depression of all time), yet the Germans got their act together and prospered. Not only prospered but they thoroughly cleaned house. They drove the communists out of Germany, they drove the Jewish money power out of their economy and they drove the Jews themselves out of the professions, out of their educational system and out of their government. It was a historic case of the White Race systematically taking control of their own destiny and getting the world's most pernicious parasite off their back. Furthermore, it was a classic model of what the other White nations viewed with envy and were eager to emulate.

It was indeed a major threat and the most dangerous crisis the Jews had faced in the last two thousand years of their history. The decision came down from the Kehilla: Adolf Hitler and Germany had to be destroyed!

Again, it was the American goy that came to the rescue of the Jews. Suddenly, depression or no depression, the tremendous industrial strength of the American nation was thrown into high gear to produce vast quantities of war materials – a multitude of weapons for mass destruction. Whom did America (?) want to destroy? Why, the Germans, of course! As all the world now knows, and is reminded daily, it was the American military might that destroyed Germany in 1945 and blasted their cities into rubble.

What interest did the American people have in destroying Germany? None whatsoever. In fact, a third of the White Americans themselves were of German ancestry, as I have already pointed out.

The White goy did it all to save the neck of the Jewish parasite and to restore Jewish money power worldwide, including Germany. Now, as we near the end of the 20th century, we find that this same Jewish parasite has ominously turned its demonical powers towards the destruction of the White Race itself, the very patsy that saved its neck only two generations ago. Today the Jew is furiously hell bent on bringing in the Mexicans, the Koreans, the Filipinos, the Vietnamese, the Nicaraguans, the Chinese and all the scum and mud people of the world in order to overwhelm and outbreed the White people of this once pristine land.

Case No. Four: Israel and the Rape of Palestine in 1948. We have already chronicled the bastardized beginnings of the parasitic bandit state of Israel in 1948, when the overwhelming population of that area was still Arab and Palestinian. In issue No. 36 of Racial Loyalty and the first chapter of RAHOWA! This Planet is All Ours, we tell the story of how Jewish money power and Jewish rapacity took over a major piece of Palestinian territory that had been Arab for more than 1300 years. Nevertheless, when the Jews proclaimed their bastard state in 1948, the United States, under President Harry Truman, virtually broke its neck to be the first to recognize this foul and ill-begotten state, and again it was the United States who led the way In the United Nations to give its blessing to this criminal atrocity.

Case No. Five: Korea. By the late 1940's and early 1950's when "America" acted as if it was alarmed about the worldwide spread of Communism, it made two major decisions. One was that it was going to act as the world's policeman, whether the other countries liked it or not, and secondly, they would supply foreign aid to some 120 countries of the world, whether they needed it or not.

Korea was the first postwar country in which the United States decided it would flex its military muscles. What interest did we have in this backward mud country half a world away? None whatsoever. Our excuse was another blatant lie, namely "to stop Communist aggression." It was phoney as hell, since only a few years earlier in World War H the United States had saved not only the Jews, but also Jewish communism in its home base of Russia. In fact, it was American economic aid and military power that had surreptitiously promoted communism throughout the world before and after that calamitous war. Now we were committing our troops and resources to fight a phony no-win war in Korea. Absolutely insane.

What did the Jews gain from this war? It set the pattern and greatly helped to weaken and drain the now dominant White superpower of the world – the United States. It also killed, maimed and crippled tens of thousands of young White men in the prime of their manhood, and left us with the commitment of a highly costly army of occupation in that country over the last forty years.

Case No. Six: Vietnam. The build-up for the Vietnam war started slowly during the Kennedy regime in the early 1960's. After Kennedy was himself assassinated by the Jewish Mossad on November 22, 1963, and Jewish stooge Lyndon Johnson took over, the troop build-up accelerated rapidly. I personally remember listening to Johnson's State of the Union message in which he categorically stated, "We do not want to win, we just want to show that aggression does not pay." For moral reasons even more idiotic than previous Jew-instigated wars, the build-up continued until it reached a massive 500,000 American boys in the stinking jungles of Vietnam. Nobody knew why they were there, dying and bleeding, neither the soldiers in the field, nor the taxpayers at home who were footing the bill. Anti-war demonstrations abounded at home and abroad.

How much did this stupid war cost the American people? The long-term costs, including on-going pensions to the disabled veterans and also their dependents undoubtedly run into the hundreds of billions. We know that at least 67,000 American boys were killed, some 300,000 wounded and maimed, and tens of thousands more were left to slowly die of cancer induced by the use of Agent Orange to "defoliate" the jungle. It is my unswerving conclusion that the Jews knew exactly what in the hell they were doing and sprayed this carcinogenic chemical substance on our troops deliberately to wreak the Insidious damage that in fact it did.

What secret reasons did the Jews have to stage this pointless and idiotic war? It further helped to cripple the U.S. economy and tremendously increase the debt of the American people to the Jew-owned "Federal" Reserve. Again, it killed thousands of White Americans in the flower of their manhood, as stated above, and wrecked the education and careers of a whole generation. It also divided the country and left a legacy of shame and guilt that will last for generations. However, the main purpose of the Vietnam war was to divert the attention of White Americans from the Jew-orchestrated "civil rights" revolution which firmly established the Jewish control of Washington and signified the beginning of the open and systematic destruction of White America through punitive taxation, forced busing, affirmative action, mud immigration and subsidization of the black demographic explosion.

Case No. Seven: the Gulf War. We have already reviewed the hypocrisy, treason and deceit leading up to our insane entrance into the Gulf War and sending 550,000 of our troops to the hot desert sands of Saudi Arabia. We have done so in the last three issues of Racial Loyalty.

Despite the United States being the largest debtor in the world, despite our economy wallowing in depression, despite the more than 350 billion dollar deficit in the current budget year, Bushwhacker Bush was non-plussed and found ample money to stage this incredibly pointless war. What is it costing? Well, like the Vietnam war, it will run into the hundreds of billions, and its maintenance is admittedly a billion dollars a day.

Why are we there? Bush and his lackeys have come up with a number of spurious and shifting reasons, but like those of Vietnam, they are all phony as hell. The real reason our military might has been placed on the desert sands of Saudi Arabia is to protect the world's Number One parasite – the Jewish bandit state of Israel.

We see a repeat of the same brutality and destruction that characterized General Sherman's march through Georgia. The burning of Atlanta, the destructive march upward through South Carolina and North Carolina, burning cities and estates and laying waste to plantations and farms as they went along. We see a repetition of the brutality of bombing of cities like Hamburg, Dresden and hundreds of others into rubble and the killing of at least 50 million White people during World War II. It was, and is indeed, an ongoing process of the Jewish Purim – kill, burn, destroy the goyim.

Conclusion

Is there nothing that will stop the Jewish juggernaut from rolling onwards and destroying our world and our precious race? Yes, there is and the only power on earth that can stop the further depredations of the Jewish tyrant is the White Race, and only the White Race. Informed, aroused and united the White Race can make short shrift of the insidious and deceitful Jewish monster.

The Jews have accomplished the enslavement and mastery of the world through their parasitic and deceitful religion – Judaism. In order that we, the White Race, can build a more powerful counterforce to overcome this deadly virus we need to arouse and unite our own people by means of a powerful religion of our own. We need a revolution of values! We need to throw overboard the deceitful Jewish values that have been imposed upon us by Jewish Christianity (love your enemies, turn the other cheek, sell all thou hast and give it to the niggers) and put into its place the eternal wisdom of the Laws of Nature for our own survival, expansion and advancement. (We are soon coming out with another book – A Revolution of Values Through Religion.) In Creativity we have the whole framework, the winning formula. We have the Total Program, the Final Solution, the Ultimate Creed. We now need to promote the hell out of our program already in place and inform, arouse and organize our own resources for our own best Interests.

White Man, be a servile, stupid goy no longer! Vow never again to be harnessed into the Jewish yoke! Become a militant Creator and help destroy the Jewish monster that is now feeding upon us. DELEND A EST JUDAICA!
